

I just hope you don't take this away! I am so tired of all the unavailable calls I get! Will you give me money for this, how about this! It gets really bad! No matter what I tell them, they keep calling! When I found out about this I was soooo relieved! I had this one company try to sell me 3 different items after I told them I had a death in the family and I couldn't afford ANYTHING, but they tried 3 different times. If this can cut out just half of them, I'd be a happy man! I can't be mean, it's just not in me so I can't just hang up! I also can't be a prisoner to my phone calls, having to wait to see the number on my ID before I know if I can answer it or not. They call late at night, early in the morning! I just thank God that all my family and friends have numbers that show up on my ID, imagine how many calls I'd be stuck with if thay didn't. So, please.... keep the list!
